THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Star-Spangled Banner

by Francis Scott Key

Led by MacKenzie Mary Cochrane '21

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THE ALMA MATER

From Finlandia
by Jean Sibelius
Led by Kathleen L. Gregory '21

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life's hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance; naught can us e'er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim;
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

DUANE BOULIGNY '94

MANAGING DIRECTOR, LEVERAGED FINANCE, WELLS FARGO SECURITIES
TRUSTEE EMERITUS
DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Duane Bouigny '94 is a managing director in the Leveraged Finance group at Wells Fargo Securities and is based in San Francisco. He manages the specialized industries debt capital markets team, which structures and originates loan syndications and high-yield financings, primarily for the gaming industry. During his career at Wells Fargo Securities he also has managed teams covering the energy, forest products, and beverage industries.

Bouigny served on the College's Board of Trustees from 2011 to 2020 as a member of the Academic Affairs, Building and Property, and Student Affairs committees. Upon his retirement in June 2020, he was named trustee emeritus by the board.

In November 2017, Bouigny and fellow trustee Andre Owens '85 were co-chairs for the College's inaugural Reflecting Forward: A Celebration of Multiculturalism and Diversity. It took place in the newly renovated Center at Moore Hall, a space designed to incorporate the College's diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts. In recognition of the generosity of Bouigny and his wife, Nancy, the Bouigny Lounge at the center was named in their honor.

He also co-chaired the Reflecting Forward celebration in 2020 with Monica Womack '91 and Owens.

Generous benefactors to the College, the Bouignys established the Duane '94 and Nancy Bouigny Scholarship Fund in 2011 to assist African-American and Asian-American students.

Bouigny is equally generous with his time. He enjoys networking with students and serves on PC's Career Education Advisory Committee and the PC School of Business Advisory Council. He has served as honorary chair of his Reunion Committee and was a panelist at a PC to Wall Street Breakfast event in 2019.

A graduate of Northwest Catholic High School in West Hartford, Conn., he said he was fortunate to be awarded the MLK Scholarship to attend Providence College, where he studied economics. Prior to joining Wells Fargo in 1998, he was an assistant vice president at Sumitomo Bank in San Francisco from 1997 to 1998 and, after completing a commercial banking training program, served as a relationship manager at NationsBank in Florida from 1994 to 1997.

The Bouignys reside in Greenbrae, Calif., and are the parents of three: Julia (13), Cade (11), and Corrina (9). When the children are not in school in the San Francisco Bay Area, the family enjoys spending time in the mountains at their home in Lake Tahoe. Bouigny maintains his season tickets for men's basketball, and the family watches games together whenever possible.

JOHN CHAN '74

RESTAURATEUR, LIVE MUSIC IMPRESARIO, PAINTER, PHOTOGRAPHER
DOCTOR OF FINE ARTS

John Chan '74 is a restaurateur, impresario of live music in Southern New England, painter, and photographer whose support for the arts is acclaimed in Rhode Island and beyond. His restaurant, Chan's Fine Oriental Dining in Woonsocket, R.I., offers some of the finest jazz, blues, folk, cabaret, and comedy performances in the country.

Chan was inducted into the Rhode Island Music Hall of Fame in 2018 for his support of jazz and blues musicians and for his help in launching the international careers of such Rhode Island performers as Scott Hamilton, Roomful of Blues, Duke Robillard, and Greg Abate. In 2011, he went to Memphis to receive the Keeping the Blues Alive Award from the Blues Foundation. He also received the William Blackstone Society Award from the Blackstone Valley Tourism Council and the Pell Award for Excellence in the Arts from Trinity Repertory Company.

Born in Hong Kong, he came to Astoria, Queens, with his family at age 10. In 1965, he moved to Woonsocket when his parents, Ben and Ethel, purchased the restaurant that became Chan's. He worked as a dishwasher, cook, and server before attending PC, where he studied business. He was introduced to jazz music through his roommates, Joseph Small and Nehru King, who had a music show on WDOM radio.

His efforts to introduce live music to Chan's in 1977 were supported by Ron Della Chiesa, host of the Music America program on WGBH radio in Boston, who coined Chan's slogan, "Home of eggrolls, jazz, and blues." In the decades since, Chan's has become as renowned for its music as its food. The restaurant's walls feature signed photographs of the many artists who have passed through its doors: Dizzy Gillespie, Leon Redbone, Livingston Taylor, Aztec Two-Step, Shemekia Copeland, and Ana Popovic, among others.

Robert Farrelly, M.D. '52, a Cumberland physician and Leon Redbone fan, introduced Chan to his sons, movie directors Peter Farrelly '79 and Bobby Farrelly. Chan had a speaking role in their 1983 film, Stuck on You; a cameo in Me, Myself, and Irene; and played the owner of a Chinese restaurant in the final episode of the second season of Brotherhood, the Showtime series filmed in Providence.

Chan also is an artist. After graduation, he took photography classes at PC. He continues to study drawing and painting at the Providence Art Club, and his framed watercolors decorate his restaurant.

Chan lives in Woonsocket and has one son, Jonathan, and a grandson, Zachary.

EMILY D. LEARY

HUMANITARIAN BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

In partnership with her husband, Hon. William C. Leary '60, '10Hon., a retired probate court judge in Connecticut and trustee emeritus of Providence College, Emily D. Leary has lived a life of philanthropy that has benefited the College and her local community.

The couple's generosity has helped to transform facilities for the PC women's ice hockey program into some of the best in the country. In 2013, the Learys established the William C. and Emily D. Leary Endowed Scholarship to support students with financial need from Windsor Locks, East Granby, Suffield, Enfield, East Windsor, or Windsor, Conn., or a student in need due to a sudden change in financial circumstances.

A dedicated member of Mary, Gate of Heaven Parish in Windsor Locks, Emily served two terms as president of the Parish Council and now is treasurer. She launched a Giving Tree Project to provide presents, food, and gift cards to 100 local families each Christmas. She also is active on the Social Justice Committee. In 2013, the Most Rev. Henry J. Mansell, D.D., archbishop of the Diocese of Hartford, awarded her the St. Joseph Medal for her efforts on behalf of the Church.

Her service to her community also is extensive. She volunteers with the ImmaCare Inc. shelter in Hartford, collecting food, clothing, and care packages for the needy, cooking dinner each month for shelter residents, and assisting the outreach director on projects. She was a member of the board of directors at Enfield Loaves and Fishes Soup Kitchen for 10 years and served as treasurer for seven years. She assists the Windsor Locks social services director with Project Elf, helping to obtain gifts for needy children at Christmas.

Emily earned an associate degree from Katharine Gibbs School in 1956. She worked as assistant to the advertising director at The Hartford Courant from 1956 to 1971 and as office manager and paralegal in her husband's law office from 1974 to 2001. She was one of two founding members of the Northern Connecticut Women's Legal Assistant Association and served two terms as president during her membership from 1975 to 2001.

"God has been good and generous to me all my life," she said. "My main focus in life is to help and share with those who are less fortunate than me."

The Learys are longtime residents of Windsor Locks, Conn.

EDWARD JAMES MULCAHY JR. '66

TRUSTEE EMERITUS
MANAGING DIRECTOR/COMPLEX MANAGER (RETIRED),
MORGAN STANLEY
DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Edward James Mulcahy Jr. '66, better known as Jim, retired in 2014 after three decades in wealth management with Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, where he managed a team of 200 employees and four businesses with assets under management totaling $24 billion.

In his role as managing director/resident manager for Smith Barney's Citigroup headquarters office, he oversaw four businesses: Domestic Private Client, International Private Client, Middle Markets Fixed Income, and Equities. He also served as senior vice president and resident manager in New York City, where he was responsible for sales, administration, recruitment, and retention.

Prior to being recruited by Smith Barney and moving his family to New York City in 1987, Mulcahy was account executive and assistant branch manager for Dean Witter Reynolds in Boston. He began his career with Polaroid Corporation from 1969 to 1981, working in customer service and manufacturing support, before being elevated to senior marketing manager.

An economics major at PC, he received an MBA from Boston College in 1970 and a certificate in advanced management from MIT's Sloan School of Management in 1979.

Mulcahy was a member of the PC Board of Trustees from 2000 to 2008 and was awarded emeritus status upon retirement. He was the inaugural chair of the College's National Board of Overseers from 2009 to 2020 and is immediate past chair. He is a member of the School of Business Advisory Council. His sustained service to the College led the National Alumni Association to present him its Personal Achievement Award in 2016.

With his wife, Kathryn C. Mulcahy, he has endowed two scholarships at PC. The Mulcahy Family Scholarship Fund, established in 1998, supports students from the New York metropolitan area or Cape Cod. The Rev. James Quigley, O.P. '60 Scholarship Fund, established in 2011, supports Hispanic or Latino students who attended a Catholic high school or are from Central or South America.

Mulcahy was a member of the Economic Council for the Dominican Friars Province of St. Joseph. He is active in his community, serving as a trustee since 2018 of Cape Cod Healthcare, which oversees Cape Cod Hospital and Falmouth Hospital.

The Mulcahys reside in Hobe Sound, Fla., and Osterville, Mass., and are the parents of four: PC alumni Edward James Mulcahy III '96 and Kathryn Mulcahy Godino '01, and Kelly Mulcahy Dolan and Mark Conway Mulcahy, who graduated from Boston College in 1994 and 1999, respectively.

DR. LAURIE SANTOS

PROFESSOR OF PSYCHOLOGY, YALE UNIVERSITY
HOST, THE HAPPINESS LAB
DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Dr. Laurie Santos, a professor of psychology and head of Silliman College at Yale University, is an expert on happiness.

Her course, Psychology and the Good Life, teaches students how the science of psychology can provide important hints about how to make wiser choices and live a life that's happier and more fulfilling. It is the most popular course at Yale in more than 300 years, with almost one of four students enrolled. The course has been featured in numerous news outlets, including The New York Times, NBC Nightly News, The Today Show, GQ Magazine, Slate, and O! Magazine.

Since September 2019, Santos has hosted The Happiness Lab, a podcast that examines the latest scientific research on factors impacting well-being and happiness. In her studies, she has discovered that many of us do the exact opposite of what will truly make our lives better. The Happiness Lab, which has more than 35 million downloads and peaked at No. 3 on the U.S. Podcasts Chart, regularly shares surprising and inspiring stories that alter the way listeners think about happiness.

Santos has won numerous awards for her science and her teaching. She was voted one of Popular Science magazine's "Brilliant 10" young minds and was named in Time magazine as a "Leading Campus Celebrity." She received the Genius Award from Liberty Science Center in New Jersey and the American Psychological Association Distinguished Scientific Award for Early Career Contributions to Psychology.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., she studied psychology at Harvard University after graduating from New Bedford High School. As a sophomore research assistant, she traveled to Cayo Santiago, a small island off Puerto Rico, where her studies of the monkey population inspired her interest in the psychology of animals. She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology and biology, magna cum laude with highest distinction from Harvard in 1997 and a master's degree in 2001. In 2003, she received a Ph.D. in psychology from Harvard.

Santos began teaching at Yale as an assistant professor in 2003 and was awarded tenure in 2010. She was named head of Silliman College, Yale's largest residential college, in 2016. She also serves as director of the university's Comparative Cognition Laboratory and the Canine Cognition Center.

Santos currently lives on Yale's campus in New Haven, Conn., with her husband, philosopher Mark Maxwell.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

ADAM BENJAMIN '91, CEO AND CO-FOUNDER, UPPERCAMPUS

Adam Benjamin '91 is the CEO and co-founder of UpperCampus, a career discovery organization focused on connecting high school and college students with universities and employers that match their career goals. The company offers a platform using relevant mobile and social media technologies to help inspire and guide all students regardless of equity and access.

Benjamin founded UpperCampus in 2018 after spending more than seven years as group director at Facebook, where he helped build the global customer marketing team, offering strategic marketing guidance to some of the world's largest brands.

In 2016, Benjamin and his wife, Meg Howley Benjamin '91, endowed the Benjamin Family Social Media Fellowship Program to give students the opportunity to gain real-world experience marketing the PC School of Business using the school's social media channels. Fellows serve for a year, receive a stipend and mentoring, and network with employers during visits to businesses such as Facebook, Snapchat, and Google in New York City.

Benjamin studied business administration at PC. He launched his entrepreneurial career right after college as a founding member of HeartBeat Corporation, a software company that co-developed video game hardware and software with Sega of America and Electronic Arts.

He then worked at Reuters of America, designing internet-based research and trading applications for JP Morgan, Morgan Stanley, and Merrill Lynch. He was vice president at DoubleClick, now a Google subsidiary, where for nine years he built the email marketing, global customer support, and sales engineering divisions, expanding and opening offices in New York, Colorado, Ireland, and Australia.

In 2006, he co-founded and served as CEO of UGENmedia, a social media technology company that served clients such as Facebook, Twitter, and Apple. It was acquired in 2008 by an Atlanta-based company, which was soon after acquired by Oracle.

Benjamin is an adviser to several start-up companies, an active speaker on the subjects of social media marketing and entrepreneurship, and is currently a member of the PC School of Business Advisory Council. The Benjamins live in White Plains, N.Y., and are the proud parents of three, including Aidan Benjamin '23.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia, rooted in traditions that began at 12th century European universities, conveys historical significance and specific meaning to contemporary academic ceremony. Often lacking buildings of their own, those universities would undertake teaching and learning in churches, with academic activities involving both clerics and laypeople. Historians suggest that scholars of the day wore hoods and long robes as a means for staying warm in unheated church buildings. From those origins has evolved a colorful tradition rife with symbolism and meaning.

According to standards adopted by American universities, the cut of the gown signifies whether the wearer has a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree, with the doctoral robe adorned with three bars on each sleeve and front panels. The hood represents both the wearer's field of study and the institution that awarded his or her degree. Headwear, both the mortarboard cap and tam, and the tassel itself, may be assigned to represent a specific field of study.
