THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

The Star-Spangled Banner
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key
Music by John Stafford Smith
Vocals by Liliana Massa '25

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there,
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Mother of Truth, we proudly pledge to thee
Undying love and steadfast loyalty.
From thee we learned the wondrous work of God,
His goodness, grace, and holy power;
Clear hast thou shown what pathways must be trod;
All fearless now we brave life’s hour!

Though failure frown, though kindly fortune smile,
Firm our advance; naught can us e’er beguile.
To honor bound, to love and virtue sworn,
Lift we our voice in full acclaim;
Our lives shall thee with noble deeds adorn;
Hail Providence! We praise thy name!

PROVIDENCE MUNICIPAL COURT JUDGE, RETIRED

Judge Frank Caprio, J.D. '58, '08Hon. is the son of immigrants who, through hard work, devotion to family, and love of their new country and community, sought and found a new life in America. They instilled a sense of responsibility and commitment to service and education in their three sons.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia, rooted in traditions that began at 12th century European universities, conveys historical significance and specific meaning to contemporary academic ceremony. Often lacking buildings of their own, those universities would undertake teaching and learning in churches, with academic activities involving both clerics and laypeople. Historians suggest that scholars of the day wore hoods and long robes as a means for staying warm in unheated church buildings. From those origins has evolved a colorful tradition rife with symbolism and meaning.

According to standards adopted by American universities, the cut of the gown signifies whether the wearer has a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree, with the doctoral robe adorned with three bars on each sleeve and front panels. The hood represents both the wearer's field of study and the institution that awarded his or her degree. Headwear, both the mortarboard cap and tam, and the tassel itself, may be assigned to represent a specific field of study.
